★ IMPORTANT NOTICE from KOICA

The 2025 KOICA Master's Degree Program application process consists of two main stages: (1) KOICA Selection and (2) Institution (University) Selection.

The first round involves the KOICA Selection, where applicants are recommended by their country's relevant government. The application process will take place at the KOICA office in your country, or in the case of countries without a KOICA office, at an affiliated KOICA office or the Embassy of the Republic of Korea. Detailed eligibility criteria and procedures can be found in the KOICA Scholarship Program Application Guidelines (hereinafter KOICA Guidelines).

The second round is the Institution (University) Round, which is the university selection process. Only those who pass the KOICA Selection can apply to universities. The list of successful KOICA Selection candidates will be forwarded to the universities that the applicants applied to. Each university will conduct its own selection process including document review, local health check-ups, and interviews (or/and exam), based on their specific admission requirements. Those who have been finally accepted at the university round are required to submit original documents to the KOICA overseas office/Korean Embassy.

This Program Information (hereinafter PI) serves as a guide for the second round, the Institution (University) Selection.

Before you proceed with your application, we kindly request that you carefully review and comprehend the guidelines outlined in both the KOICA Guidelines and Program Information(PI). It is essential to note that the responsibility for any inaccuracies in the information provided rests with the applicant. Additionally, please be mindful that each university may have unique selection procedures, document submission requirements, and deadlines. Therefore, we recommend you to pay close attention to these specific details during the application process.

Lastly, please note that the schedule may be subject to changes depending on KOICA/Institution circumstances. Any updates will be announced on the KOICA CIAT website (<https://www.koica.go.kr/sites/ciat/index.do>). Regularly check the website for the latest information. For any inquiries, please refer to Section VIII.CONTACTS and contact us accordingly.

III. TRAINING INSTITUTE

1. GENERAL INFORMATION

1) About University:

Ever wanted to meet the brains behind Korea's rapid economic and social development? KDI School of Public Policy and Management was established in 1997 in partnership with the KDI, Asia's leading think tank. KDI has been rated by the Economist as one of the most influential research institutions in the world, ranked No. 1 in the field of international development (2016 Global Go to Think Tank Index). The KDI School draws on a wealth of research and resources from the KDI, to share Korea's unique development experience with the global community.

The KDI School offers an innovative educational program focusing on policy and development issues. Aiming to transform mid-career professionals into leaders of their fields, KDI School has been committed to equipping our students with new knowledge, vision and a global perspective.

3. OTHER INFORMATION

■ Lecture Hall and Conference Rooms

High-tech lecture halls and video conference rooms are available to make each class and conferences more effective.

■ Convenient Facilities

Computer Lab, Chambers, Prayer Room, Gym, Student Council Room and Lounges are available for all KDI School students on campus. The computer lab is open to students 24 hours a day, with internet access as well as newly installed computers, printers, and scanners. The student chambers are also accessible to students 24 hours a day. Each chamber includes desks and a locker, providing a space for students to study and do research/class assignments/team projects, or simply to relax in their free time.

■ Library

The library archives books, academic publications, and other materials essential for student, faculty, and staff research. The KDI Library and the KDI School Library were integrated into the KDI Central Library in 2014 in order to ensure better services through the sharing of capacities, facilities, and resources. The publications and materials are available in the areas of business, economics, policies, and much more.

(library website: <https://library.kdischool.ac.kr>)

- Diverse Collections: The Central Library has been pampered with a featured technology with a book capacity of over 263,890 books, 474,704 e-books, magazines and academic journals. Over 65% of the collection is written in English. The Central Library has the highest percentage of books per student among university libraries in Korea.
- Hi-tech Library: The Hi-tech Library has features that create a more convenient experience in the library where students can learn advanced library technologies such as self-check-out & return, reservation pick-up and intelligent return. Mobile application is a multi-purpose software that allows users to access e-resources, e-attendance, and e-pay.
- Collaborated Academic Class and Seminar: The Collaborated Academic Class and Seminar Central library provide not only database workshops, but also cooperative classes with regular courses on academic writing.
- External Cooperation: KDI Central Library has been in close collaboration with libraries and affiliated organizations in Korea. The library actively provides Interlibrary Services for materials not owned by our library.

■ Student Counseling Service

The KDI School provides a Counseling Service for students. While the new semester can be an exciting challenge for some students, others may have to deal with a variety of issues, including personal and academic concerns. The counseling service is dedicated to supporting those students both emotionally and practically, and aims to maximize the student satisfaction so they can take full advantage of the opportunities at the KDI School and enjoy their stay in Korea. Students may seek counseling for various reasons. No topic is off limits, but common concerns are academic issues, cultural adjustment issues, homesickness, relationship problems, stress and anxiety, depression, grief and loss.

IV. ACADEMIC REGULATIONS

1. Academic Regulation

KDI School of Public Policy and Management regularly revises its Academic Rules and Regulations. The following details are provided in order to help students avoid any difficulties in successfully completing their academic programs.

1. (Program Chair & Academic Advisor) Students will receive advice on general school life by the Program Chair and their Academic Advisor. Each administrative division will also help students adjust to life on campus.
2. (Personal Information) Students should update their personal information through MIS (<https://mis.kdischool.ac.kr>) to ensure they receive pertinent information from the school. If you want to change your name or your date of birth on the system, you should submit an application form to the registrar along with your passport.
3. (Notice) All academic information and forms can be downloaded from the official school website (<https://www.kdischool.ac.kr>). As the School is not responsible for informing each student of every notice, it is the students' responsibility to pay close attention to the Notice Board as well as the Student Message Board on the school website.
4. (Regulation Change) When occasion demands, the rules and regulations may substantively change upon the School Executive Committee's approval. Any changes to the rules and regulations will be notified.

Academic Dishonesty

- Object of establishing disciplinary action for academic dishonesty: To prevent academic dishonesty that might occur during mid-term examinations, final examinations, quizzes, and reports (including research projects).
- Definition of academic dishonesty: Academic dishonesty refers to cheating during examinations, and plagiarizing on reports and papers (or research projects).
- Academic dishonesty on examination and report: Conducting any of the following acts during an examination and/or when submitting reports is considered committing academic dishonesty.
 - Academic dishonesty during examination
 - Looking or attempting to look at prepared documents (paper, book, note, etc.). This also includes jotted notes on walls, desks, chairs, etc.
 - Looking at other student's answer sheet or showing answers to another student.
 - Substituting other people's exam or asking for substitution.
 - Attempting to communicate with each other including speaking, laughing and any other actions.
 - Pulling out or using any wireless device (laptop, smart phones, tablets) or technical aids without the approval of the instructor.
 - Continuing to write after the examination timeout.

- All students should adjust their cameras so that each student's upper body and face appears on the screen when you take an online exam.
- In the case of similar/same IP exams of the same subject at the same time or with a time difference
- Leaving the screen during the test or use another program
- Disobeying instruction of a proctor, or intentionally interrupting during the examination.
- Academic dishonesty on reports and papers
 - Partially or entirely copying other student's report.
 - Allowing other people to copy one's report.
 - Inserting ideas from existing research papers without using quotation marks or proper citations.

Plagiarism on report: If a professor finds out that one has plagiarized on a report, it is considered equivalent to cheating during an examination.

- Plagiarism: Plagiarism refers to 'taking other people's thought without referring to the source'. Word plagiarism originates from Greek 'plagios' meaning 'wicked, cunning' and Latin 'plagiarius' meaning 'stealing other's slave'. Plagiarism is also considered as literary theft and 'intellectual theft'.

Procedure of disciplinary action

- When academic dishonesty during an examination is exposed, the proctor should submit evidence and document with his/her signature to the Academic Affairs Division without delay.
- Documents to be submitted
 - Report on academic dishonesty (prepared by the proctor)
 - Personal statement (this can be omitted)
- In case of report (or research projects), when the professor feels that submitted report (or research projects) has been plagiarized, he/she should submit document and evidence to the Academic Affairs Division.
- Documents to be submitted
 - Letter from professor (prepared by academic advisor or thesis Supervisor)
 - Personal statement (this can be omitted)
- The office in charge of academic dishonesty should submit the received case to the School Executive Committee.

Disciplinary Action imposed on student committing academic dishonesty

When the Graduate School Committee receives notice on academic dishonesty, depending on the degree of academic dishonesty, the following punishments can be imposed.

- Students committing academic dishonesty on an examination or assignment will receive a "0" for that particular assignment (exam, paper, etc.), or may receive an "F" for that particular course depending on the degree of academic dishonesty. Students committing academic dishonesty, including plagiarism, on their research projects will fail and not receive credit for the research projects.

Full regulations may be found in the Student Handbook, including regulations on the use of AI-based tools, sexual violence prevention, and other pertinent rules and regulations.

2. Mandatory Dormitory Residence

KDI School dormitories are located on campus, just five minutes away from the lecture rooms. All KOICA Scholars are required to live in the dormitory.

* If a fellow stays in external accommodations due to personal responsibility, separate KOICA support will not be provided.

3. Compliance with Residency Rules

- Any student found in violation of residency regulations will be expelled from the dormitory and must promptly return to their home country. Refer to the resident rules below:

A. (Access Restriction) Use of dormitory facilities is strictly limited to residents. Accordingly, residents shall allow neither entry nor overnight stay of outsiders in the building.

B. (Reporting Obligation) Residents must promptly report the following matters to the school:

- ① When a roommate or another resident is in crisis due to mental or physical issues, or is missing for at least 24 hours without being in touch
- ② When a fire or other facility-related hazard or potential accident is identified
- ③ When witnessing or becoming aware of an outsider's access to the dormitory or use of its facilities

C. (Communication) Residents must review and comply with the notices posted on the dormitory website bulletin board. All notices shall be considered acknowledged by residents after 3 days from the date of posting. Accordingly, any responsibilities related to issues arising from failure to read the notices shall be borne by the residents.

D. (Room Management) The amenities and facilities provided within the room must be used and maintained in the following manners:

- ① Residents must inspect the amenities and facilities in the room before finalizing their check-in, and this must be documented by submitting a check-in confirmation form.
- ② Residents must take preventive measures against theft, including locking doors, and shall be responsible for monitoring fire hazards and maintaining cleanliness within their own rooms. The school shall not be held responsible for any thefts.
- ③ Authorized personnel may visit the room to inspect and repair any malfunctions or damage to amenities and facilities. While it is the principle that inspections be conducted in the presence of the resident, they may be carried out in the resident's absence in the following cases, with notification provided afterward.
 - where prior consent for an inspection in the absence of the resident has been obtained from at least one occupant of the room
 - where inspections must be conducted in the absence of the resident due to unavoidable circumstances after one or more prior visits

- where emergencies occur requiring immediate action, such as fires or natural disasters
- where an unannounced inspection is deemed necessary for dormitory safety, such as checking electrical appliances or verifying residency
- where a resident refuses an inspection without a valid reason

- ④ Any breakage or loss of amenities, or damage to facilities, whether intentional or not, shall be compensated for personally by residents.
- ⑤ Upon check-out, residents must undergo an inspection of the condition and cleanliness of the room, including its amenities and facilities. If the condition is deemed poor, compensation shall be required.

E. (Mutual Respect) Residents must adhere to the guidance provided by dormitory staff, including the Housemaster and dormitory assistants, and should show respect toward each other.

F. (Common Facilities) To ensure harmonious communal living, the following rules must be observed:

- ① To prevent noise, the use of common facilities is prohibited from 11:00 PM to 7:00 AM.
- ② The last user of the common facilities must turn off the lights and set the heating/cooling systems to energy-saving mode.
- ③ Personal belongings left unattended in common facilities or common items may be discarded.
- ④ Any breakage or loss of amenities, or damage to facilities, whether intentional or not, shall be compensated for personally by residents.

G. (Cooking) Cooking in dormitory rooms is prohibited. Cooking is permitted in the shared kitchen only.

H. (Mail) It is the principle that all mail must be received by the intended recipient in person. The recipient is responsible for any delays or losses resulting from late collection or incorrect address details. Regular mail must be collected from the mailbox, registered mail from the Housemaster, and packages from the unmanned parcel room by the recipient in person. Damaging or stealing another person's mail is strictly prohibited.

I. (Delivery) Since delivery personnel (outsiders) are not allowed to enter the dormitory, orders requesting delivery to "doorstep" or "on-site payment" are prohibited. Residents must collect delivered food through the designated delivery lockers in each dormitory building, and must include their room number in the delivery address to prevent loss.

J. (Loss of Belongings) The installation of CCTV in the dormitory is intended for facility management, monitoring unauthorized access, and fire prevention, and it is not primarily intended for resolving theft incidents.

K. (Laundry) Residents must use only the designated laundry room in their assigned building and promptly collect their laundry after completion for the convenience of the next user. Additionally, drying laundry in common areas such as hallways is prohibited.

L. (Health) Residents must take all necessary precautions to prevent illnesses and accidents in a communal living environment. In particular, if a contagious disease occurs, residents must report to the Student Affairs Division and the Housemaster, and follow their instructions.

5. Participant Responsibilities

Code of Honor and Conduct of KDI School of Public Policy and Management

I. Develop Integrity

- ① Perform at the highest levels of excellence, as a member of KDI School community, in my studies, research and learning as well as in my personal and professional endeavors.
- ② Not tolerate lying, cheating, stealing, plagiarizing, piracy or other violations of intellectual property rights.
- ③ Respect the personal liberties of fellow students, professors, and other people.

II. Exercise Respect

- ① Value diversity among colleagues and encourage cooperation by emphasizing positive human relationships and honor, both in personal relationships and in group interaction.
- ② Behave in a professional manner, both on and off KDI School campus, in order to secure my personal reputation and enhance that of KDI School community.

III. Lead by Example

- ① Have the courage to express disagreement respectfully, the strength to lead, and the wisdom to follow.
- ② Confront all forms of unethical behavior or any inappropriateness including physical and emotional harassment; hold my colleagues and myself accountable, and, if necessary, report issues to the appropriate administrative office.

V. PRECAUTIONS

1. Possibility of Online Program: The program may be offered in a distance-learning format (online lectures) in the event of unforeseen circumstances, including but not limited to infectious disease, war and other disasters that prevent KOICA scholars from entering the country. Note this is not applicable to individual scholars and their respective personal circumstances, but to the entire cohort.
2. Religious Meals & Personal Food Preferences: The Food for Thought student dining hall provides halal-certified lunch and dinner. There are multiple supermarkets within walking distance and a hypermarket (Emart) about 10 minutes away by car where students can purchase their own ingredients to suit their dietary needs. The dormitory kitchens are well-equipped with utensils and other materials.
3. Regulatory Compliance: KOICA SP participants should observe KOICA CIAT Fellows' Guidebook and University's internal rules and regulations, otherwise the participant would lose one's status as a SP participant and a university student.

VI. HOW TO APPLY TO INSTITUTION(UNIVERSITY)

- This page is intended as reference for applicants who have successfully advanced through the KOICA (Korean Embassy) Round conducted by KOICA overseas Office (Korean Embassy).

■ Application Method

- The school will notify successful applicants regarding university enrollment and will offer guidance on subsequent schedules related to those who have successfully completed the KOICA Round conducted by KOICA overseas Office (Korean Embassy).

Admission Steps	Contents	Period
1	Application Submission (via apply.kdischool.ac.kr)	Jul.14 - July 30
2	Document Screening	Aug.4 - Aug.29
3	Local Health Check-up	Sep.10 - Sep.19
4	Interview	Sep.22 - Sep.30
5	Second Round Result	Oct. 8
6	Original Document of University Submission (to KOICA overseas Office/ Korean Embassy)	Oct.8 – Nov.7
7	Final Admission Notification	Nov. 27

*The above schedule is subject to change.

■ Detailed Information

1) Step 1: University Documents Submission

- Applicants who have successfully advanced through the KOICA Round are requested to submit the requisite documents to the institution by uploading them through KDI School's application system : apply.kdischool.ac.kr

* In the event that guidance from the university is not received by July 25th, please proceed to contact the KOICA overseas Office or the Korean Embassy.

2) Step 2: Document Screening

- Documents of the applicants who have been nominated by the regional KOICA overseas Office or Korean Embassy (if KOICA overseas Office is unavailable) will be screened and evaluated by the university. The university will assess the education and work experiences of the applicants based on their submitted documents. The university will also examine whether or not the nominated applicants have properly prepared the required documents.

3) Step 3: Medical Check-up (Local)

- Those who have successfully passed the 1st stage of the selection process (successful applicants of document screening) must submit the medical examination result by the designated date.
- Further guidance will be given by the university.

4) Step 4: Interview

- Applicants who have successfully passed the 1st stage of the selection process (document screening) will be invited to participate the interview, which will be conducted online through Zoom.
- Further guidance will be given by the university once the result of the 1st stage (document Screening) has been announced.

5) Step 5: Original Document Submission:

Applicants are required to prepare in advance for document authentication (which must be Apostilled/Consular Authenticated) and have them ready to be sent to the university as soon as the result of the 2nd stage (interview) has been announced. Those who have been finally accepted at the university stage are required to submit original documents to the KOICA overseas Office/Korean Embassy. KOICA overseas Office/Korean Embassy will send original documents to the University. If there are issues with the original documents, the final candidates may be placed on hold or disqualified. Please ensure that the submitted documents are accurate and complete. And please check accurately with university staffs before submission to KOICA overseas Office/Korean Embassy. The cost of the initial submission of original documents (from the applicant's country to the Korean university) will be covered. However, if the applicant's original documents are incomplete and need to be resubmitted to the university, no additional financial support will be provided. The applicant must send the documents to Korea at their own expense via an international courier service.

- Original document submission address: KOICA overseas Office/ Korean Embassy
 - Supplementary Document Submission Address: Respective Universities (No financial support provided)
- ※ Bear in mind that if the documents are not properly authenticated OR if there are any missing documents, you may have to supplement them again through express mail at your own expense. Also, domestic postage costs are not covered (Home to KOICA overseas Office/Korean Embassy). KOICA overseas Office and Korean Embassy will send original documents to university.

6) Admission Notification

▣ Important Notice

The Apostille is used when public documents are being transferred between countries that are parties to the Hague Apostille Convention (1961). Documents issued in signatory country should be Apostilled to ensure validity. Please check the updated signatory country list and information here.

Documents issued in signatory country

- Submit diploma or certificate of graduation with Apostille legalization (including translation for non-English document).
- All documents must be in English. (documents not in English must be accompanied by authenticated translation)
- Apostilled documents should NOT be sent to us as photocopies (the apostille must be original).

Documents issued in non-signatory country

- Submit Required Documents that are consular-verified by the Korean Embassy (including translation for non-English document).
 - If there is no Korean Embassy in the country where your university is located, please search for the Korean Embassy in charge.
 - Consular-authenticated documents should NOT be sent to us as photocopies (the Embassy stamp/verification must be original).
 - Please obtain an exemplification from the Korean Embassy on a notarized copy (Do NOT get the stamp/seal on the true original certificate (we do not return the documents in any case)).
- ※ The requirements for Consular legalization vary by Embassy. Please contact the Embassy for further information.

Documents issued in China

- Submit academic certificate report issued by CHSI (China Higher Education Student Information).

Documents issued in Korea

- Documents issued by a Korean institution do not need to be Apostilled or consular authenticated.
 - Please submit documents with a valid authentication code for academic-related documents.
- Following a directive from the Ministry of Justice of Korea, we are unable to issue the visa-related documents without the apostilled/consular authenticated documents sent via post. Consequently, it may result in cancellation of admission.
 - As it may take extended time to get the documents apostilled/consular authenticated, applicants are strongly advised to start the authentication process as early as possible. It is the applicant's responsibility to submit the corresponding documents within the deadline.

- Documents certified by commissioners for oaths, advocacy attorney, public notary or solely authenticated by the applicant's government authorities/institutions are unacceptable.
- Photocopies are NOT accepted in any case.
- Original diplomas should not be submitted via post as we do not return submitted documents.
