II. SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM PARTICIPANT GUIDELINE

1. Purpose

This guideline aims to help create a sound learning environment for participants under the KOICA Scholarship Program.

2. Definition of Terms

The terms used in this guideline are defined as follows.

- 2-1. "KOICA", a Korean organization dedicated to ODA, is in charge of the Scholarship Program, which is entrusted to universities and funded by KOICA.
- 2-2. "Scholarship Program (SP)", one of the Fellowship Programs provided by KOICA, refers to the master's or Ph.D. program, aiming to nurture key leaders who can contribute to the economic and social development of partner countries.
- 2-3. "University" refers to the university that is entrusted by KOICA to operate and be responsible for the SP.
- 2-4. "Participants" refers to individuals participating in the SP under the government nomination of partner countries. Upon enrollment, the participants are entitled to be provided with adequate support as students of the university, and bear the corresponding responsibilities.

3. Entering and Staying in Korea

- 3-1. Participants are not allowed to have their family members accompany them.
 *If necessary, doctorate program fellows may be accompanied by family members six months after their arrival in Korea (subject to prior approval by KOICA and the university). Family members of participants are not allowed to work or engage in any profit-making activities in Korea, and KOICA and the university will not provide them with any support (both financial and administrative).
- 3-2. It should be noted that only the person whose name appears in the invitation letter issued by KOICA is considered as a program participant. No others will be given any support and amenities when entering and staying in Korea.
- 3-3. KOICA shall not be held responsible for any undertakings or consequences arising from the non-compliance with 3-1 and 3-2.

4. Leaving Korea

- 4-1. Participants shall leave Korea on the designated date of departure (in most cases, the course termination date). However, in exceptional cases such as a pandemic, participants may be asked to leave earlier than the expected date of departure.
- 4-2. If a participant loses his or her status as a KOICA participant pursuant to Item 5 of this Guideline, "Dismissal of Participant Status", he or she shall leave Korea within 3 days from the date on which the dismissal is decided.
- 4-3. If a participant has to extend his or her stay in Korea, or leave for a third country other than his or her home country, due to inevitable circumstances, a written approval from the home government (an official letter from the ministry to which he or she belongs) should be submitted to the KOICA head office through the KOICA overseas office or the Korean embassy in the home country.
- 4-4. Relevant expenses incurred under Guideline 4-3 shall be borne by the participant.

5. Dismissal of Participant Status

- 5-1. Participants will lose their status as SP participants if they commit any of the following acts or fall under any of the situations described below.
  - ① Falsifying statements on any of their application documents or providing false information in their application documents
  - ② Receiving serious disciplinary actions, such as suspension or expulsion from the university
  - ③ Violating Korean law

- ④ Temporarily leaving Korea more than once without permission
- ⑤ Being involved in any political activities
- ⑥ Violating the agreement with KOICA
- ⑦ Failure to follow the decisions made by KOICA regarding the program intentionally
- ⑧ Behaving disgracefully as a participant of an SP
- ⑨ Withdrawal from the program before completion
- ⑩ Failing to leave Korea within the given time frame as stated in section 4 of this guideline ("Leaving Korea")

5-2. If a participant loses his or her status as a KOICA SP participant, KOICA will notify the head of the Korean diplomatic establishment abroad and the government of the participant's home country of the fact.

6. Leaving Korea during the Program

6-1. If a participant intends to return to his or her home country during the course of the program, for unavoidable reasons such as serious illness, domestic affairs, or an urgent summons from the home government, he or she must acquire prior approval from the university with the following documents.

- ① A copy of the medical certificate (for sickness leave)
- ② Letter of explanation
- ③ Any other documents required by the university

6-2. If a participant has to return to his or her home country due to his or her own fault, and not for any of the reasons listed in 6-1 of this guideline, KOICA will notify the participant's original place of employment and the home government of the fact. The participant may not re-apply for any KOICA training programs in the future.

7. Temporary Leave

7-1. If a participant intends to leave Korea temporarily during the vacation, he or she must obtain approval from the university with the following documents by the date set by the university.

- ① Letter of confirmation from the advisor
- ② A copy of a round trip airline ticket
- ③ A copy of travel insurance (when traveling to a third country)
- ④ Any other documents required by the university

7-2. Temporary leave during the semester (including during summer and winter schools and orientation programs) is not allowed. Exceptions will be made only for inevitable reasons, such as death of a family member or a marriage of the participant. Even in these cases, a prior approval must be obtained from the university and KOICA.

7-3. For the days of the temporary leave, daily allowance will be deducted for each day of the leave (including days of departure and re-entry) and no exceptions will be made to the deduction.

7-4. In case of the death of an immediate family member (only for participants' own parents, spouse, and children), KOICA will support round-trip air-ticket for temporary leave with the following documents :

- ① a family death certificate
- ② a confirmation letter by a professor
- ③ a family relation certificate issued by the government
- ④ a travel insurance certificate

8. Scholarship Payment and Receipt

8-1. All matters regarding the payment and receipt of scholarship shall be defined by KOICA.

8-2. Scholarship may not be granted in the following cases. However, if KOICA acknowledges the inevitable nature of the participant's withdrawal from the SP, he or she may receive support for his or her return.

- ① Failure to leave Korea within the given time frame, for reasons other than inevitable reasons for departure stated in 4-3 of this guideline
- ② Dismissal of a KOICA participant status as stated in 5. Dismissal of Participant Status
- ③ Withdrawal and leaving Korea during the program for reasons other than what is stated in 6-1

9. Notification of Re-entry

If a participant re-enters Korea within the allowed period for a temporary leave, the participant shall report his or her re-entry to the person in charge at the university.

10. Notification of Changes in Contact Information

If there are any changes to the contact information of a participant, the change must be reported immediately to the university

11. Internships

11-1. Participants must follow the regulations regarding the internship, in order to guarantee full commitment to SP and create a "study-first" environment.

- ② Participants must give first priority to their studies over any other activity.
- ② Internship activities related to research and academic activities of a participant's field of study, are allowed upon approval of the university.

11-2. If a participant earns more than KRW 20,000 a day from the internship, any exceeding amount will be deducted from his or her daily allowance.

12. Applicable Provisions

For any other matters not stipulated in this guideline, the academic regulation of the participant's registered university shall be applied.

III. CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Purpose

The Code of Conduct for participants of the KOICA Scholarship Program (hereafter "Code of Conduct") aims to provide both ethical and behavioral standards for the participants to ensure the successful completion of the KOICA Scholarship Program (hereafter "SP").

2. Application and Compliance

This Code of Conduct applies to all participants of the KOICA SP.

3. Academic Performances

- 3-1. Participants follow the instructions and guidance provided by the professors and faculty of the university that they have enrolled in (hereafter "university") to facilitate their studies.
- 3-2. Participants faithfully attend their university classes and become fully involved in their studies in accordance with the regulations and guidelines of the university.
- 3-3. In order to ensure appropriate academic achievement, temporary leave or travel to a third country during the course of the semester is, in principle, not allowed. For temporary leave or travel to a third country during the summer and winter vacations, a participant must gain approval from the university. However, if there is a seasonal semester during the vacations, temporary leave or travel to a third country is not allowed.
- 3-4. Participants shall not seek employment or commercial activities for personal gain, except for internship programs approved by the university.

4. Program Outcome

Participants shall return to their organization of origin upon the completion of SP and try to apply the knowledge and skills they acquired from SP to contribute to the development and advancement of their home country.

5. Health Management

Participants are recommended to make efforts to stay healthy by working out regularly and seeking medical care if necessary. If and when participants experience a deterioration in health that may require care from medical professionals, they must report such a medical issue to the university to get necessary help.

6. Safety Measures

- 6-1. Participants must refrain from visiting places that may be dangerous, or getting involved in acts that may cause safety accidents. For any damages caused by voluntary actions that violate the Code of Conduct, the participant in question shall bear full responsibility.
- 6-2. If and when accidents or situations occur that may put participants at risk, SP participants shall immediately report the matter to the university to seek necessary help. However, if it is found and determined that SP participants are responsible for the occurrence of the reported accident or situation, whether intentionally or otherwise, the university may take disciplinary action against SP participants in accordance with their relevant regulations, after the resolution of such accident or situation.

7. Policy on Misconduct

- 7-1. Participants shall always behave, act and speak responsibly and honorably, recognizing that their words and actions represent the university and KOICA as well as the country of their origin.
 7-2. Participants shall refrain from accessing inappropriate establishments that could undermine their dignity.

8. Discriminatory Actions and Sexual Harassment

- 8-1. Participants shall complete mandatory courses designed to prevent discrimination and sexual harassment provided by KOICA and the university and shall act accordingly.
 8-2. Participants shall not engage in any aggressive or insulting behavior or use of words of discrimination against gender, religion, disabilities, age, nationality, physical appearance, marital status, family status, ethnicity, political opinion, or sexual orientation.
 8-3. Participants shall not engage in any sexual harassment including sexually oriented jokes or innuendos, unwelcome invitations for outings, unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical harassment of a sexual nature.
 8-4. Participants shall be cognizant of the fact that sexual harassment herein is defined in accordance with international norms and standards. It is to be noted that sexual harassment shall be judged and determined on the basis of claims and feelings of victims, not the intent of the behavior.
 8-5. Participants shall also acknowledge that both discriminatory actions or sexual harassment shall not only be regarded as a cause for disciplinary actions including dismissal from the SP, according to rules and regulations, but also be subject to legal actions under the Korean law. 8-6. It is strongly recommended that participants who fall victim to or witness to any act of discrimination or sexual harassment must immediately report the case to the university and seek assistance.

9. Prohibition of Political Activity

Participants shall not take part in any political activity, such as supporting a certain political group or getting involved in any political movements.

10. Compliance with the Regulations of the University and KOICA

- 10-1. Participants shall fully comply with the academic regulations of the university and the guidelines of KOICA.
 10-2. If a participant violates any of the regulations of the university or KOICA, the participant shall be subject to disciplinary measures, as stipulated in such regulation.
