

Educational and Methodological Work

The Department teaches "Pediatrics" in the following areas: 3rd-4th-5th year "Pediatrics" faculty and 3rd-4th year "General Medicine" faculty, 3rd year "Medical Prevention" faculty, and 3rd year "Medical Biology" faculty.

The subject "Propedeutics of Children's Diseases" is taught in the following areas: 2-3 courses "Pediatrics," "General Medicine."

"Pediatrics." Medicine Genetics" is taught in the following areas: 3-4 courses "Dentistry,"

"Pediatrics." Folk Medicine in Children's Diseases" is taught in the following areas: 3rd year "Folk Medicine."

The subject "Nursing in Pediatrics" in the following areas: 3rd year "Higher Nursing"

"Child Care" subject in the following areas: 2nd year "Higher Nursing" 2nd year "Pediatrics."

The subject "Introduction to the Medical Profession" in the following areas: 1st course "Pediatrics" 1st course "General Medicine"

Subject "Ambulatory-Polyclinical Pediatrics" in the following areas: 6th year "Pediatrics" 6th year "General Medicine"

The department has 1 1st-year master's resident and 3 1st-year clinical residents.

In order to improve the quality of education of students, the educational process is carried out on the basis of a program approved by the Ministry of Higher Education, Science and Innovation of the Republic of Uzbekistan. Lectures (in Karakalpak, Uzbek, and Russian) and test collections for each lecture have been prepared for the disciplines "Pediatrics," "Childhood Diseases, Propedeutics," "Outpatient Clinical Pediatrics" and "Nursing in Pediatrics."

The following verified documents for the training course of the Republic of Uzbekistan:

- State standard;
- Curriculum;
- Working educational program;

Available during training:

The department is located in the Republican Children's Multidisciplinary Medical Center and the Republican Regional Children's Medical Rehabilitation Center of the Republic of Karakalpakstan, where theoretical and practical classes and work with educational documentation are conducted.

The department is equipped with modern technology, including desktop computers (5), laptops (1), multimedia equipment (2), and interactive whiteboard (3), which allows for the effective use of digital technologies in educational activities. All technical means are actively used in training sessions and lectures.

During training, the following are available:

The department is located in the Republican Children's Multidisciplinary Medical Center and the Republican Regional Children's Medical Rehabilitation Center of the Republic of Karakalpakstan, where theoretical and practical classes and work with educational documentation are conducted.

The department is equipped with modern technology, including desktop computers (5), laptops (1), multimedia equipment (2), and an interactive whiteboard (3), which allows for the effective use of digital technologies in educational activities. All technical means are actively used in training sessions and lectures.

The department also actively participates in the translation of textbooks. The department translated the textbook "Hospital Pediatrics" into Karakalpak by authors S.A. Rakhimov, A.R. Isroilov..

